Application Questions (no more than two pages)

Brief description of your organization, including your mission and capacity (financial and staffing) to undertake the proposed project:

Description of the proposed project, including information about the specific need/issue, its impact on the community served, and the specific activities to be carried out:

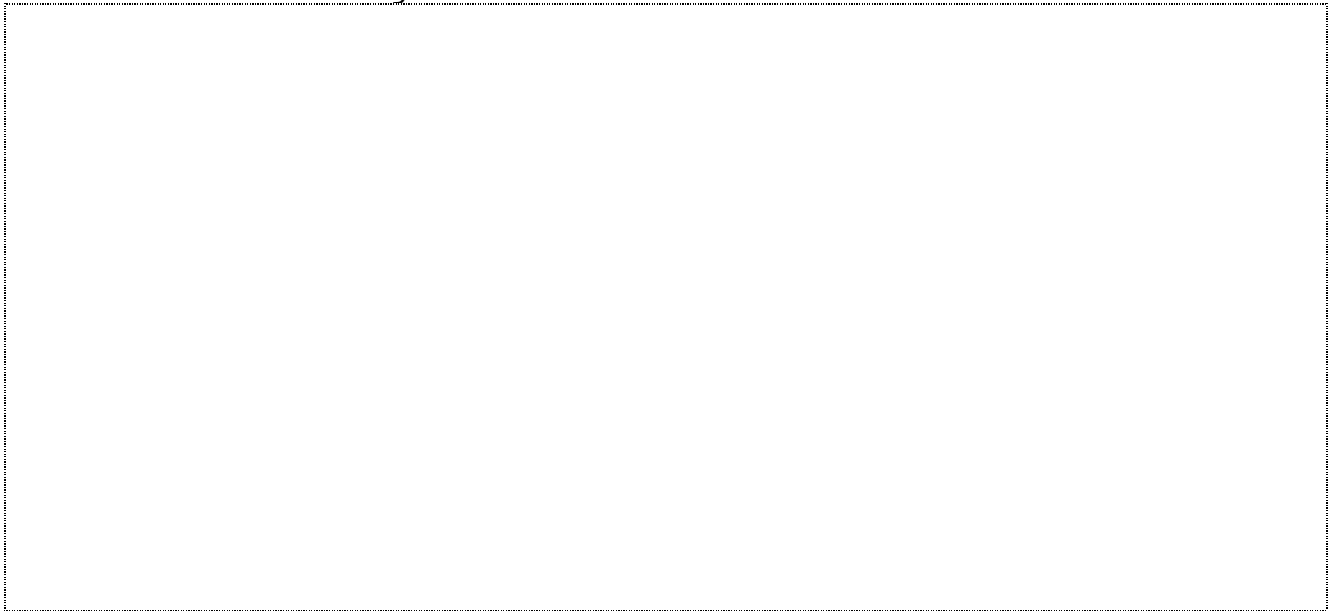

Ensuring inclusivity is important to the collaborative. We know that within immigrant and refugee communities, people with certain intersecting identities are especially impacted. How do you intentionally reach, serve, and fully include marginalized and under-resourced groups including LGBTQ people within your intended population and internally within your staff, board, and volunteers?

Describe how immigrants and refugees have been included throughout all aspects of this project, including in the planning and development phase:

Which of the three general funding priorities of the collaborative does your project address and how? Describe the proposed solutions or approaches, including a timeline for implementation.

OIRFC funding priorities: 1. Movement Building & Advocacy, 2. Legal Services, and 3. Basic Needs and/or Wraparound Services

What are the milestones or benchmarks in the project that demonstrate the approaches and solutions are working?

Project partners and roles, especially if the project and funding request are for a collaborative or coalition approach:

Nondiscrimination Policy: The funders collaborative members do not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, religion, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disabilities, age, status as a veteran, national origin or any other protected class. Applicants seeking support from the collaborative must hold similar standards in the provision of services.

Applicant's statement: We adhere to similar standards of nondiscrimination. If awarded this grant, we agree to use the funds as indicated in this application. We further agree to submit the required progress report on the project. I am authorized by my organization to submit this application.
